Hartley's

The Mysterious Urge of Christmas

No matter how old and far out of the world's dust and confusion we are, not one of us can help but feel it. It is in the air! To feel the urge is a sign that we are not as dead as sometimes we think we are. No one can fairly say, "I am done with Christmas" until none are left of kindred and neighbors to be made happier for a kindly thought.

Granting it to be true that there are ungrateful people in the world, it still remains possible for us to realize on Christmas morning a feeling that will speak out within us, saying, "I certainly feel better myself if no other does for having sent that Christmas token to that old relative or friend."

It will take not more than a half hour of time to select a Christmas Gift at Hartley's, for there never was a Christmas time when it was so easy to find suitable things, and so many of them, or such a large variety to choose from, as this season.

The store gets bigger in its knowledge of the world's productions, and in its courage to gather them for mutual advantage.

A LIBERAL REWARD.

A liberal reward will be paid for the return of the two boxes of 1915 calendars of the West Virginian and Farmers Free Press taken from the room formerly vacated by the West Virginian.

These calendars are of no value except to these papers and were perhaps taken by thoughtless boys. No questions will be asked if they are returned.

turned. Or if they have been removed for distribution to the public, the purpose for which they were bought, we will pay for the distribution on receipt of bill, if it has been properly made. The West Virginian calendars are the largest made and have that striking picture, "A Honeymoon in Venice," as the subject. The calendars can all be identified by the pictures and the printing.
